

6 Pulsford Road Prospect SA

2  1  1

A C1880 bluestone-fronted cottage in Prospect already has a head start, but this one adds Torrens Title ownership, a north-facing rear, scope for your own stylish stamp and the sweetest near-city position.

The plan is classic cottage: a sweeping hall, two nicely sized bedrooms, timber floors, high ceilings and the living spaces pulled to the rear where the home gets its best light.

The lounge gives the house its character, with a timber mantel, open fireplace, timber-framed windows and enough width to work as a proper sitting room rather than a token pass-through.
