

61 Second Street Brompton SA

4  2  2

In an eclectic city-fringe suburb known for its gritty, industrial roots, this imposing 2020-built 2-storey home rises from its prized corner plot; a high-spec, versatile and stylish reminder that Brompton is both historic, progressive and exciting in the same breath.

Torrens titled, solar-powered and standing sharp behind its secure fencing, it turns a commanding corner position into a genuine family footprint with four bedrooms, two separate living zones, three bathrooms and a double garage.

The lower-level moves with purpose, placing the main bedroom, fitted walk-in robe and deluxe ensuite, at the front before opening into a clean-lined living, dining and kitchen zone.
