Hidden in a palm-studded cul-de-sac between lake and sea, the summers of your life play on repeat thanks to this 2000-built home with light-drenched interiors, multiple living zones and a licence to entertain outdoors and undercover, just a stroll to the sand.

Another example of why Tennyson is so tightly held, this beautifully resolved three-bed home follows an ingenious layout that gives the formal lounge, study and ensuite main bedroom free reign at the front, far from the secondary bedrooms at the very rear.

Escape to the front room on a whim. Or come together where open plan living wraps itself in prolific glazing and invites you out to a covered, semi-enclosed patio that
